

Women's Safety Lecture

The NSS unit of KMSP College organized a Women's Safety Lecture on September 4, 2025, with 150 volunteers participating. The event aimed to raise awareness about women's safety and promote a culture of respect and empowerment.

Key Highlights:

- Number of Volunteers: 150 NSS volunteers participated.
- Objective: To educate volunteers about women's safety, self-defense, and empowerment.
- Topics Covered: The lecture likely covered topics such as women's rights, self-defense techniques, and strategies for staying safe in public.

The event provided a valuable opportunity for volunteers to learn about women's safety and empowerment, promoting a culture of respect and support. By organizing such events, NSS units can play a vital role in promoting social awareness and community development.
